Social Event

Terrace Set As Scene Of Pre-Easter Frosh Hop

Co-chairmen Gilkey, Pivnick Plan Events In Conjunction With Coming Dance

Wow! It's only a couple of weeks away . . . What? The FROSH HOP, of course.

This gala pre-Easter affair is going to be held Wednesday, March 20, at the Terrace room of the Fairmont hotel. The dance is semi-formal and non-corsage.

EASTER THEME

An Easter theme will be featred for the dance. High freshman president, Isadore Pivnick, who is in charge of the affair, is planning an Easter egg hunt which will be held on the campus Thursday, March 14. The person who finds the "lucky" egg will receive a free bid to the dance. Also in preparation for the dance is the noonday dance on the day of the hop, which will be dedicated to the high frosh class.

CO-CHAIRMEN

Freshman presidents Izzy Pivnick and Jack Gilkey are the co-chairmen of the affair. Working out the program committee are Dave Wilson, Jean Frederickson, Betty Hansen and Anne Brunton. Ann Rakowsky heads the ticket committee. The hotel committee is being handled by Don Bareilles.

Bids are now on sale in front of the Co-op, for $1.50 per couple.

Sophs Eligible

Kappa Delta Pi Set New Ruling

A system of junior membership, in the Kappa Delta Pi, for sophomore students, was announced at the recent bi-annual convention of this fraternity in St. Louis. Dean Walter J. Homan, in outlining the plan, stated that to be eligible one must have a 2.5 grade average.

Among the prominent educators at the convention were Dr. W. C. Bagley and Dr. Thomas Briggs, both of Columbia university. There were 50 students and 40 counselors at the meeting.

The following California State colleges were represented: San Jose, Santa Barbara, Fresno, Chico, San Diego and San Francisco.

Sigma Pi Sigma Plan Project

Al Barros and Jack Carolan, newly pledged members of Sigma Pi Sigma fraternity, were acquainted with pledging duties for the semester at the regular meeting of the fraternity Wednesday night, at the home of John Finn.

Final plans of the organization for the semester's project were completed and discussed, Bob Sweeney and Ed Barry, vice-president, being co-chairmen. Details will be revealed in the Golden Gater Tuesday, it was revealed by Barry.

Sigma Pi Sigma pledges once each semester, taking students from high freshman to senior standings. A "C" average is required. Barros and Carolan both have a high grade point average, besides being prominent in many extra-curricular activities. Carolan is a member of the varsity track team, while Barros has been prominent in intramural sports.

Advertising

Gater Adopts Ad Policy

An agreement that "as taxpayers who are indirectly supporting the college, any commercial enterprise will be allowed to advertise in the Gater" was reached this week by members of the committee to investigate Gater advertising policy and will be voted upon Monday, it was announced today by Alex Edelstein, chairman.

"However, concerns using unfair tactics, such as distributing pamphlets about the college, will not be allowed to advertise," Edelstein declared. "Steps relating to this matter will be taken at the Monday meeting."

COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Those working on the committee are: Bob Sweeney, Peggy Smith, Lew Morris and Edelstein. Sally Wilde, manager of the bookstore, and Leo C. Nee, comptroller, were present at the committee meeting when the agreement was reached.

At present the so-called co-op pays rent to the state, and acording to state law, it was learned from the committee's investigations, profits made in the stores, both the cafe and bookstore, can only be used for maintenance and improvement of the co-op. However, it was stated by President Sweeney that these profits will be used for furnishing a bookstore and a cafeteria in the proposed student union on the new campus.

BOARD VOTES

The Board of Publications will vote on the committee's recommendation late Monday, if possible, in order to keep within the two-week limit set by the Executive Board for the investigation. The Executive Board will not be asked to vote on the decision of the Board of Publications. However, they may question it if they so desire.

Alpha Pi Nu Visit Hospital

Following the installation of officers at a semi-formal dinner last Tuesday nite at Veneto's, Alpha Pi Nu, pre-nursing club, will visit the U.C. hospital this afternoon.

New officers include: Dorothy Schnell, president; Edna Lane, vice-president; Patricia Hogen, secretary; Elaine George, treasurer; and Helia Koistenen, A.W.S. representative.

After the installation dinner, Zora Edwards, outgoing president, was presented with a gift for her outstanding work last semester.

Conservation Week, March 7-14

For Fund

Casaba Jig Wednesday

Tickets go on sale today for the "On to Denver" dance to be held next Wednesday noon, according to Frank Jackson, chairman of the dance committee.

Proceeds from the dance will be placed in the fund to send the basketball team to Denver. Tickets, which will cost 10 cents, will also entitle the holder a chance to win a radio which has been offered as a door prize.

Besides Jackson, the committee in charge of the dance includes: Slip Madigan, Claude Hanrahan and Phil Schmidt.

Tentative plans for an orchestra and entertainment have been made.

Visual Learning

Big Film Library Owned By School

"State has one of the most complete libraries of educational films to be found in any western college."

This fact was voiced yesterday by Mrs. Anna Verona Dorris, director of visual education and associate professor of geography. "Not to mention the variety of subjects that are covered by our assortment of more than 10,000 slides," she added.

VVISUAL LEARNING

"The importance of visual education cannot be stressed too greatly. A lesson that can be shown as well as read of and talked about in class is indelibly impressed upon the mind."

There are complete catalogs of available subjects filed in the College library, Frederic Burk library, and in the office of the department located in College hall.

MAY BORROW

"This equipment, projection machines and operators may be borrowed for use on the campus by any student or faculty member, by applying at Room 209 the day before the material is needed."

Speaking

State Debaters Win Top Honors

First place in last weeks Pacific Coast Intercollegiate debates sends the Forensic Council off to a flying start this semester.

With every member of State's debating team eagerly awaiting a possible debate with the University of Washington, on March 29, other scheduled activities are nevertheless still holding their place in the limelight, and being carried off as planned.

Future opponents on which the Forensic Council will hurl their of knowledge, include the California Aggies, to be met on Tuesday, March 12; and Saint Mary's College, on March 13.

Starting on the week of March 12, and running through to the middle of the following week, the Forensic Council will hold an intra-council debate tournament pitting the individual members against each other.

Radio debates scheduled for March 23, and 30, respectively, match up State's frosh debaters, with Saint Mary's, at 5:00 o'clock over Station KROW; and our own Gater varsity pitted against the Gaels, at 4:00 over station KSFO.

Future plans include a proposed high school tournament to be given by the Forensic Council, in which high schools from all over the coast will be allowed to participate.

At present, the Council's program has not been unusually heavy. However, the freshmen debaters have held at least one or two debates a week, bearing the largest part of the debating schedule.

Specialists In Great Demand

Mrs. Alma Downey of the Placement office reports that more and more superintendents are asking for teachers with specialized majors.

All teachers have a major in education, but there is a demand for applicants with majors in other fields, also.

Executive Committee O. K'S. Plans For Campus Radio Day

Recently the radio column in the Golden Gater carried an article suggesting that a Radio Day be held on this campus sometime in April. A petition was submitted to the student executive committee asking for their endorsement and money for expenses of the event.

Last Thursday Jack "Slip" Madigan, representing the executive committee, attended a meeting called by the Gater's radio editor, "Stub" Harvey, to review the plans and advantages of the event.

It was decided that San Francisco State college's first Radio Day would be held April 4, at last Monday's Exec Board meeting.

As a feature of the affair, the committee plans to present in the Rally bowl a number of well-known radio stars who are featured over several of the local radio stations and networks. Ira Blue and Will Aubrey of NBC have pledged their support in the event and will assist the committee to make the affair entertaining and educational.

Tentatively planned also is a luncheon which will be served in the Activities room, where the radio guests and the committee will be guests of the student executive committee. The suggestion to open the luncheon to the general student body at so much per plate has been suggested, and this problem and others will be acted upon in subsequent meetings of the Radio Day committee.

The committee in charge of the Radio Day consists of Dorothy Talliaferro, Jean Deckman, Jo Ashlock, Sherman Grant, Jack Madigan, and Harvey, chairman. Any suggestions for the event will be gladly received by the committee in Box 906.

Basketball Team

Drive For Funds Getting Near Goal

Committee Announces That Two Hundred Dollars Still Has To Be Secured

With the cry "On to Denver" resounding louder and louder through the campus air, the drive for funds to send the Golden Gater casaba squad to the plateau city for the amateur championships passed the $500 mark last night.

MEN DONATE

A sizable amount was also donated by enthusiastic students at the hilarious men's fashion show yesterday even in the Frederic Burk auditorium. The big wax-sealed jar carried around by committee head Frank Jackson is slowly being filled to the brim, and the two money raising schemes of last night only helped to accelerate the rise.

Stated committee member Jack "Slip" Madigan, "If the general student body continues to contribute as they have been doing, and the clubs and dances not yet contacted donate, the necessary $700 goal will be easily reached. However, we cannot slack down in our drive."

New Organization

Composer Club Move Started

In an effort to bring to the campus an organization which will aid students as well as encourage them in creative work in music and lyric writing, a composers and lyric writers club will be started here with a meeting of all those interested in music and lyrics, next Wednesday morning at 11 a.m. in Room 12 of Annex A. All composers and writers are invited.

"Until this organization shows its worth and that it is an aid to the students, the Music Federation feels it cannot break precedent by endorsing the new organization at this time. When the group shows it is an advantage to the students and is an aid to their development and progress, we will gladly get behind the new group," said Douglass Kidd, president of the Music Federation, last Wednesday.

New Project News To Nee

San Francisco Housing Authority's application for $1,129,000 of Federal Housing funds for low-rent development of Roberts field was approved by President Roosevelt last Tuesday, according to San Francisco Chronicle. Leo C. Nee, comptroller of the college, expressed lack of any knowledge of the project.

Cooch

Art Students View Paintings

To illustrate the way an art student's work may progress from the objective to the non-objective or abstract, Mrs. Marian Cooch of the art department invited students of the Art 30 and 130 classes to her home last Sunday to see her paintings in oil.

Several geometric rules which are employed by well-known artists were explained and discussed. Members of the oil painting classes, however, were urged to direct their brushes in ways and techniques which best express their own views about painting.

At the request of the California Water Color society, Mrs. Cooch has sent a painting of Mount Tamalpais, which will be included in an exhibition of water colors by western painters in the Riverside museum in New York city during April.

On their return from the East, these paintings will be put on the "southern circuit" to be shown in southern California and the Southeast.

Mrs. Cooch's painting of Buena Vista hill, recently on exhibition at the San Francisco Art museum, has been chosen with 20 others out of a total of 217, to go down to Saratoga for exhibit during April at the Montalvo Foundation.

Macauy Talks To C.S.T.A. Members

Stressing the need for closer cooperation among teachers, Dr. Macauy, editor of the Sierra News, addressed the California Student-Teachers association February 29. Members of the C.S.T.A. excursioned to Chabot observatory last Tuesday.

The Cat's Whisker

By "STUB" HARVEY

Somewhere else in the Gater this week you will read the announcement that San Francisco State College will have its first Radio Day on Thursday, April 4. If you don't think we're happy about it, you're crazy with the heat, because we hoped to have such a day on this campus sooner or later. Of course we didn't know that the Executive Board would put their okeh on the idea right away. So, we're mighty grateful for it all and we promise to work our hardest to make the event a wonderful day for everybody. All we want is your support and your attendance at the various events planned for April 4.

WHO'S TO BE HERE

All the network stations in San Francisco promise to send us some of their headliners. NBC will have Ira Blue, the Sports commentator and Let's Listen announcer. Will Aubrey wants to come out and play his guitar and sing for us. We've asked Susie "Q" to be here and probably her cohort Little Bennie will do a stunt with her. She says she won't sing "The Three Little Fishes" no matter how much we want her to. Well, we shall see.

From KSFO, Columbia's Northern California outlet, two radio personalities who have made a name for themselves in this neck of the woods, will be here. Just who is a secret.

KFRC has promised to send a ocuple of the Mutual Broadcasting Company stars. KSAN of the California Radio System will send someone to represent their network too. Oh yes, we forgot to mention that KYA will probably be represented here too. It should be a lark for all of us, including the guests.

If we should pass you by between now and then, don't blame us, we're just so excited that we'll probably not recognize ourselves should we chance to look up.

CONGRATULATIONS TO:

Sherman Grant, God's gift to Nature's flower lovers. Your picture in the last Gater deterred my reading your column. After all!

Genevieve Alethorpe, for your rendition of "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life" on the Homestead Amateur Hour last Monday night. It was great. Yes, we voted for you.

Frank Denke, pianist, on the NBC Homestead Hour, for your wonderful accompanying the amateur "stars". It sure helps to have a pianist who knows how to give you a lift and not a let down. (Went to school with Denke back in 1923 at Tech High in Oakland. Aren't you thrilled to know?)

Ruth Crane, of C.O.P. for your wowing them at Hal Roger's latest musicomedy, "Step 'N High". We also congratulate you for having chosen State as your next academic location. We'll be seein' you next term.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

It's generally accepted by the working trade that the best way to learn is through comparison: if your outfit looks like ——— in comparison to others, you'll change it; if your grades look pretty bad stacked up against those of your neighbor, you'll probably do something about that, too.

So we're wondering, along with Mr. Bob Sweeney and his Mr. Throckmorton Clancy, what students are going to do about our student government, which could use some attention in comparison to anybody's anything.

Just look at your student officers for the past four or five years; have a heart to heart chat with the record books—and you'll really be surprised. You'll be amazed at the consistency with which four of five individuals have dominated student government; you'll be astounded to find how many times these same four or five have appeared on this committee and that, held this office and that, controlled this job and that, gone on this "deputations" trip and that.

Walking to the street car the other day, a 6-year-old child told me what a tough time she was having with arithmetic (naturally I couldn't help her) and asked in a matter of fact way if I went to her school, too! I told her no, that I went to college. She said, "Oh, I know what college is. You have to take the street car to get there!"

I learned there by comparison. I compared it to the answer of the typical State student when questioned on student government. He'll say, "Oh, I don't know. I vote sometimes. Sometimes I don't. I haven't heard any beefs lately."

That little girl had the right answer. But it's not a street car here, it's the bandwagon, and the service is pretty good if you play ball. If you don't, you just don't go to college, as far as the "team" is concerned.

Look about you now. If there's an easy job to be had, look at the freshmen of 1931 to 1935, and you'll see who has it; if you want to see who has been dictating student government and policy (sic) for the past few years, look in the same place. I used to think that one went to college for four years and an education. Here it seems to be six, seven, etc.

Here's a goodbye to the "old fifty-ninth." Here's a salute to a new administration. I hope, for 1940 and '41.

And, if the shoe fits, wear it!

Yours sincerely,
ALEX EDELSTEIN.

Dear Editor:

In the last issue of the Gater was an article concerning a music poll of American campuses. I trust that the figures in it are a little more accurate than the section that includes the results from San Francisco State. Or is anyone aware of the fact that we had a student poll on the campus: Let me tell you about it.

A month or so ago a blank was sent to the editor of the college publication asking if he would find out who a representative portion of the student body considered the outstanding dance band, best vocalist, what they think about swing going out, etc. The editor of the Gater very obligingly saved the students at large the bother of being pestered by a lot of foolish questions. He filled out the questionnaire himself—with his personal "ickie" selections—and sent the blank back as the result of a poll of S.F. State students.

Anyway this little episode explained to me how the Literary Digest "elected" Landon President of the United States a few years back.

Yours truly,
"The Black Buzzard"

I'm Sorry

Dear Sherman Grant:

I think you're an utter heel. In the last issue of the Gater, you wrote a feature which satirized a class in Nature Study. You took the most popular, most interesting course in the curriculum and held it up to ridicule. Listen, you dope, don't you realize that you can hurt people when you write without thinking? You should be ashamed of yourself, you schliemele!

(Signed)
Sherman Grant

Gater Has Some Tough Competition

Look out, Golden Gater! That little school down at the bottom of the hill, to which you send us teachers from time to time, is going to give you some real competition. We've got a paper of our own now. It's "The Chatterbox" and it's being edited by Peter Roher.

Peter isn't the only one on the staff, but he's in charge of us all. Helen Minnichhofer is Girls' Sports Editor, Duncan Hodel is our Boys' Sports Editor, James Howard is Comic Editor, Betty Dauphin is Distribution Manager, and Don Billet is Cartoonist.

You ought to see our art. It's a man painting a warning sign telling us to be careful how we close our doors in the school. Drama, Sports, Science, Traffic Squad, Library, Art, and an occasional touch of humor, will all get a break in "The Chatterbox." What's more, all of us have a byline on each story we write for the paper. That's what every reporter hopes to have sometime, and I guess that means we're pretty good right at the start.

If you want other copies you can get them at Room 213 from R. Donald Crisler or Miss Thomas, down the hill in our school.

Ten Second Interviews

Do you think girls go to college with the intention of finding a mate?

Yes and No. No, for when a girl makes her college debut, she is mentally young and her first two years are more or less, surrendered to studies. Yes, for in her last two years, she is supposedly matured mentally, and besides, may have tired of mid-terms.

Nine Tangles With Winning Gaels Today; Athens Club Tomorrow

In their second start of the season against big time competition State's baseball team invades Moraga valley this afternoon to encounter the league leading St. Mary's Gaels.

The Gael lineup boasts an array of heavy hitters led by second baseman, Mohr and outfielder Glenn Sinnott. Other powerful sluggers include Ken Sanders, Al Lingua, and Kenny Butler. Charley Mori or Frank Maderas will most probably toe the slab for the Moragans and will be received by either George Cardoza or "Bud" Sheely.

BRYANT TO HURL

Mainstay Gene Bryant will be Coach Hal Harden's hurling choice, and his batterymate will be reliable George Weekes. The Gaters will field a team composed of Bob Moore, first base; Stubby Ahern, second base; Jack Fischer, shortstop; and Dick Coshow, third base. The outer gardens will be patroled by Phil Stolz, Walt Lagomarsino and "Tiger" Granucci.

ATHENS TOMORROW

The Golden Tide plays host to the Athens club tomorrow afternoon at Roberts field. The clubmen in previous years have offered plenty of opposition for bay region college teams, and this year should be no exception. Last year's game was won by the Staters, 4 to 3. The Athens team is composed of ex-college, professional, and semi-professional stars.

Intramural Volleyball

Boasting an impressive array of talent, powerful Sigma Pi Sigma will open the 1940 volleyball tournament today at noon when they meet the New Dealers at the Salvation Army court. Led by Captain Ed Barry, the Sigmans—who are the "white" team—are favored to annex their first win. Their opponents are composed of Coach Hal Harden's 80B class.

In the other matches of the day, the Ramblers and the Terrific Nine will clash. This tilt will be for the "B" division title, and meanwhile on the third court the runners-up for last year's championship, Sigma Pi Sigma "green" will engage the Fossils. All of these matches will be played at 12:15 on the Salvation Army courts.

Monday's battles will feature the Old Men's Athletic Club against the Orgies. Despite the fact that the OMAC is favored to win, the Orgies might pull a sneaker and trip them up. They are composed largely of the same fellows who went all the way to the semi-finals in baseball. Experience will give a distinct advantage to OMA club's play, and added height will give a distinct advantage to the OMAC, and they should win.

In another contest the Publications will make their debut against the Skulls, while the Feather Merchants and the Outcasts decide who shall be the winner of their little tussle.

Highlight of the tournament should be the scheduled match between the OMAC, led by long Tom Collingwood, and the Dusky Diamondeers, under the leadership of fiery Dick Coshow and "Tiger" Granucci. The Diamondeers, composed of baseball players, and the OMAC of basketball stars, are a-feudin'. Both leaders claim that they want to meet in a "grudge" battle.

ward, our playing will reach a new high."

The chances for the Purple Purgers to climb the ladder of eliminations at the tourney are very fine, in view of the fact that last year the San Francisco Olympic Club reached the semi-finals before falling in defeat. This year State has already beaten the Club, and the Y.M.I. game speaks for itself. The score was Y.M.I. 63, S.F. State 61, in four overtime periods.

OUTSTANDING TEAMS

The best amateur clubs in the country yearly enter the tourney, featuring such teams as the Metro All-Stars, the Bartelsville Oilers, and the Safeway Stores team. All these teams mentioned boast players that have been named on All-American basketball teams all over the United States. The winners of this tournament are always considered the champion basketball team of the world.

FINAL PLANS

Final plans to raise funds to send the team to this title match of basketeers are headed by a giant noonday dance Wednesday, with some valuable door prize to be given away. Tickets for this affair will be 10 cents. The San Francisco Junior Chamber of Commerce will also be approached.

All admissions to the Alumni-Varsity track meet tomorrow at Kezar stadium will be turned over to the fund. If expectations are reached, the funds will be obtained before Wednesday eve.

SAN MATEO HOST

San Mateo plays host to two State women's basketball teams and athletes of other colleges this Saturday at Burlingame High.

After the playoffs, swimming and refreshments will be the order of the day.

BADMINTON SIGN-UPS

"Noon recreation seems to be somewhat ignored this term as sign-ups for the badminton tournament are too few," says Manager Bernadette Fratessa. If you think you swing a mean racket, here's your chance to show off. So put your name on the dotted line, and have a lot of fun in your noon hour.

RALLY AND ELECTION

With the nominations for A.W.F.C. representatives to be held today, WAA heads have made plans for the election to be held Tuesday and Wednesday from 9 to 4 in Mrs Florence Stephenson's outer office The winners of the election will attend the convention at Stanford.

Incidentally, do the girls refer to Mrs. Stephenson as "Stevie" to her face?

Tyrone Power is a connoisseur of rhumba records. He has one of the best colections in the country.

BOXERS TO MEET AGGIES

Fresh from the boxing wars and with two good meets under belt, State's mittmen are attempting to arrange a set of bouts with the Cal Aggies at Davis for March 16, according to Don Kupfer, boxing coach.

BOYS IMPROVING

The Gaters, improving with each battle, were originally slated to meet Santa Clara at Santa Clara March 21 their next time out, but postponement was necessary due to conflicting dates with the Easter vacation. The Bronco matches will probably be held during the week of the 25th, if negotiations with George Latha, the Saints' boxing mentor, materialize.

Coach Kupfer, well pleased with the showing of his squad in the recent San Jose tourney, named a probable list of men to make the Davis trip.

POPE, HALE LEAD

Frankie Pope, 135 lbs., and Hale at 118, both winners at San Jose, will lead the squad on the northern junket. Both boys displayed a world of class in copping their fights at the Spartan meet, and Kupfer looks with a confident eye toward their activities in the coming brawl.

Swannack, Wilson, Magaran, Wendling and Chinn have been also named as probable entries. Barring accident in the next week's workouts, Kupfer hopes for the first time this year to have his squad at full strength.

DOUBLE MEETING

March 16, likewise, will see the Gater track squad meeting the Aggies at Davis in the first dual meet of the 1940 season, and two birds will be killed with one stone in the matter of traveling. The boxers will accompany the cindermen.

A workout with the University of California novices on March 12 will help to sharpen the leather-pushers for the Davis meet.

High Frosh Cop Interclass Meet

Running off of the last two events in the interclass meet last Tuesday, saw the high freshmen overtake the leading high sophs and grab the meet by a score of 53-49½.

Final point standings saw the low frosh take third place with 19 tallies; the juniors, third with 15½; low sophs, fifth at 12, and the seniors bringing up the rear with 5 points.

Summary:

Pole vault won by Woods (h.f.); Steinbach (h.s.), Gaffney (h.s.), Goettel (jr.), all tied for second. Height, 10 ft. 6 in.

Broad jump won by Horner (h.f.); Meier (h.f.), second; Goettel (jr.) and Sanderson (h.s.) tied for third. Winning distance, 20 ft.

Iron Man George Otis Is Expected To Take Plenty of Points Tomorrow

Track Meet Returns Will Go To Quintet For Denver Jaunt

Competing against San Francisco State's varsity is Runar Stone, famed "iron man," who will run for the Alumni team, on Saturday afternoon at Kezar Stadium. This meet is being staged to raise funds to send the Gater basketball team to the national A.A.U. tournament in Denver, March 17 to 23.

GATE RECEIPTS FOR CAGERS

Whether or not the State cagers will get a chance to gain national recognition will depend very largely on the gate receipts from the track meet. From this source the committee in charge figures to raise $100. Already tickets have been sent to the Alumni and responses have come quite favorably, according to Harold Martin, campus secretary. Campus clubs and classes have donated $70 to date.

Several hundred graduates of the college are expected to turn out to see the Alumni team. Besides Stone, the team will have such former stars at Daryls Hopkins, Ray Allee, Berger Johnson, Owen Jones, Dick Davis, Stan Kuder Frank Collins, James Hopkins, Stan Smith, Kenny Wilkes and Ronnie Lindlow. The graduates are expecting to cop many field events; however, the Alumni is not as strong as the varsity on the cinder track.

IRON MAN STONE

Stone, the iron man, chalked up 199 points in 1936; he competed in seven events a meet. His performance should be well worth watching. Other Alumni men worth watching are Hopkins and Allee.

Though the old grads are favored in the field events they will get stiff competition from one field man, Bill Stein.

On the track Fred Kline, though he holds a record in the four lap event, will face a tough race in the persons of Davis and Kuder of the Alumni.

OTIS TO COMPETE

Other State varsity men who are entering in the meet include George Otis, hurdler, Dick Schwab, runner of the 600 yard event and and Marc Davis, who burns up 50 yards of cinder. Another who will bolster the State team is John Carolan, ace Gater miler.

With the Alumni strong in the field and the Gaters fast in the track no one can say who is favored. So some along you all—its anybody's meet!

8 Matches On Tennis Schedule

With the sun shining brightly again, tennis balls began bouncing on State's tennis courts, Wednesday in the first practice of the semester.

Following are the standings of the squad on the tennis ladder: 1. Jack Witt, 2. Harold Wagner, 3. Ed Kelnhofer, 4. Ken Kim, 5. Ted Eschwig, 6. Ronald Lindlow, 7. Bill Hammond, 8. George Tucher, 9. Joe Lang, 10. Don Blumgren.

Any player on the ladder may challenge the player above him, and if he wins the match, he moves up on the ladder.

Coach Dan Farmer is pleased with the showing of two of the new men, Tucher and Euches who have prospects of winning some points for State. Here is a complete tennis schedule for the semester:

March 14.....San Mateo J.C., here
March 19.....Santa Clara, here
March 27.....St. Mary's, here
April 6.....Cal Aggies at Davis
April 12.....San Jose, here
April 13.....Stanford at Palo Alto
April 16.....St. Mary's at Moraga
April 20.....Santa Clara at Santa Clara

Wrestlers Finally Find Opponent

State's wrestling squad, idle for the past several weeks, and looking high and low for competition, have apparently sighted at last a chance for activity with the announcement by Don Kupfer of a possible engagement with Santa Clara in the near future.

If and when the boys do go to the post again, the probable lineups will see Larin, Malin, Simon, Pivnick, Fairchild, Chandler and Malloux in the roll and groan acts.

Gaters Second In Relay

The P.A.A. Finnish Relief indoor games, held last Tuesday night at the Civic auditorium and featuring the famed Finnish distance runner, Taisto Maki, saw the State track entries take but a single place.

A four-man mile relay team, composed of Brooks Purdom, Bill Watkins, Norm Crane and John Shephard, ran second to the Olympic club in 3 min. 41 secs.

Fred Kline and John Carolan were withdrawn from the three-mile and mile runs by Coach Cox due to lack of proper conditioning. The boys elected to continue training for the Varsity-Alumni meet Saturday.

Coach Cox, commenting today on Maki's sparkling performance in the three-mile event, joined with the chorus of bay region experts who unanimously acclaim the Finn distance star as the "perfect runner."

Gater Nine Beats San Mateo J.C.

Sparked by the urge to win, State's varsity nine scored three runs in a hectic ninth inning to cop a close contest from the San Mateo Junior college, 7 to 6, last Tuesday at Roberts field.

After apparently having the Bulldogs under control, pitcher Bob Kohout weakened in the two final frames and had to be relieved by Gene Bryant. The J.C. boys, after trailing 4 to 0, scored two runs in the eighth and went ahead 6 to 4 in the ninth.

With one out in the last of the ninth, pinch hitter Carl Haas singled, Ahern walked, and both scored on Coshow's drive that handcuffed the shortstop. Coshow later scored the winning run on Granucci's single to center.

Fencers In Isle Meet

Because of the excellent showing made by the State fencers in their last two meets, Len Duckworth, coach of the Gaters announced today that the team will be entered in the National Intercollegiate Championships to be held on Treasure Island during the summer.

Although the fencers do not expect to win or even place, the experience of meeting some of the best intercollegiate teams in the country will b something to be remembered for a long time.

Apart from the actual fencing, the fact that State is entered in a competition of this type will do much to aid the school in gaining nation-wide publicity.

"Fencing depends so much upon the individual that a school of this size should be able to develop a team second to none," quoted Duckworth, "and with the present interest that is being shown in the sport, plus the excellent support that is being given by the college, we expect to have such a team in the very near future."

Franciscan Set Photo Deadline

An ultimatum of utmost importance to all clubs on the campus was issued today by Ernie Miguel, Editor of the 1940 Franciscan.

"Any clubs who have not yet had group pictures taken must see me and secure an appointment for their picture to be taken by next Thursday or they will not be included in the book," snarled the editor in an exclusive Golden Gater interview.

Between frequent shrieks of "They must Be taken," Miguel also announced that the deadline for senior pictures to be taken (originally set for December 15, 1939 A.D.), has been passed because the panels are now being prepared for printing by the engraver.

The huge bills now collecting dust in the Franciscan abode give silent assurance to the fact that work on the book is rapidly gaining headway. Covers and all illustrations are finished, as are the first sections of the book and 56 miscellaneous pages.

"This book is going to be the goodest ever," proclaimed Miguel in a more affable mood. "We got just oodles of color all through the good ole thing, and if we don't win All-American honors in the N.S.P.A. contest this year, the judges will be a bunch of great big meanies. And I'll tell them so to they're face."

Advisory Council Installs Officers

The installation dinner of the Advisory council was held last Wednesday in the Activities room, according to Victoria Encoyand, member of the committee in charge.

New officers include: Olga Perkins, president; Jane deMamiel, vice-president; Irene Martin, corresponding secretary; Doris Heimerle, historian; Louise McKee, recording secretary; and Gladys Janssen, A.W.S. representative.

At the dinner, Ruby Parmely, outgoing president, was given an Advisory council pin for her service during the past semester.

Members of the committee in charge of the dinner were: Ruby Parmely, chairman; Charlotte Baldwin, Lucille Heim, Corrine Ketterlin, Doris Bertheand, Peggy Niven, Eva Gibson and Victoria Encoyand.

Twenty-five Girls Initiated Wed.

Approximately twenty-five girls were initiated into Kappa Delta Tau dance sorority last Wednesday night in the women's gym.

Violet Nicoloff, initiation chairman, instructed the new members to interpret various themes in a dance of their own creation. Amid much giggling and whisperings, groups of three and four initiates gave versions of music majors; a wedding party; Kappa Delta Tau girls; and a fight.

Frat Alumni Win Good Jobs

Two members of Alpha Phi Gamma, national coeducational honorary journalism fraternity are now holding responsible positions in public life, according the present president of the frat, Ernie Miguel.

Erwin Bischoff, National President of the fraternity, and last year's State chapter president, now holds the number one position on the preferred list of Oakland Civil Service examinations for Museum Attendant. Monsees, last semester's vice-president is now an air cadet at Hamilton Field with the Army.

Last semester's president, Louise Vallarino, is now teaching the kiddies at Cotati, Calif.

Sorority Initiates Ten Members

"Confucius Says" was the party theme for the girls of the Delta Sigma Nu Home Econ sorority when they initiated their new girls Wednesday night, March 6, in Room 113, Frederic Burk.

The pledges were attired in sack skirts, a rope belt, black stockings, and wore their hair in pigtails. Each girl had to put on a skit for the benefit of the members.

After the initiation ceremonies a dinner of chop suey and Chinese cookies was served. Following this the pledges, Laura Frugoli, Nora Lee, Kay Milicich, Norma Rattaro, Betty Lou Snyder, Ben Lavezzo, Betty Aranson, Ruth Bastin, Doris Caudyser and Dorothy Kuperstein, were free to put on their own clothes.

President Pearl Dondero then acquainted them with the idea of the organization, which is service.

A.W.S. Continue Spring Teas

An A.W.S. springtime tea will be held for junior and graduate women from 4 to 6 p.m. next Wednesday in the Activities room, Barbara Learnard, chairman, announced today.

The tea, which is invitational, will be open to all faculty women. Entertainment will be provided by Melgi Benamman, who will play the flute.

Committee chairmen include: Grace Lorimer, decorations; Marjorie Mace, invitations; Elise Crosthwaite, posters; Enid Hildring and LaVerne Jackson, refreshments.

Plans are being made for a St. Patrick's Day party to be given in the near future. Roberta Allen and Virginia Brandelein are in charge of the party, and Kay Warner heads the refreshment committee. As yet the date and place of the party are unknown but will soon be decided upon.

College of the Pacific radio studios arrange and broadcast seven programs each week. Two of them are heard over a network of eight stations in California.

Newman Club Holds Breakfast

All Catholic students on the San Francisco State campus are invited to make their Easter Communion with the Newman Club at the 9:30 Mass in Saint Mary's Cathedral, next Sunday.

Dr. Charles Maune will speak on "Birth Control" at a breakfast in the Plaza Hotel following the Mass. The price of the breakfast is seventy-five cents and those desiring reservations should contact Jean Cullen, Box 1268, by this afternoon.

Exhibit Scheduled By Art Museum

Starting on March 3rd and continuing into the month of April, the San Francisco Museum of Art at the Civic Center will present a series of exhibitions and motion picture showings, expressing the artistry, the talents and the mediums of contemporary and master artists.

Exhibitions listed include works by George Braque, Maurice Logan, David Park, Josef Albers, Geroges Roualt, Brett Watson, Theodore C. Polos, Dorothea S. Greenbaum, Amedee Ozenfant, Bauhaus, American Artists, Ives Tanguy, Primitive Art, and Vaclav Vytlacil. The San Francisco Art Association gallery will show works by Jack Wilkinson, Lucien Labaudt and Nils Gren.

Motion pictures made by Russian film companies will be shown at the museum on four nights at 8 o'clock. March 7th there will be pictures shown under the classification of Before the Revolution. On March 14th pictures made in 1926 will be seen under the title of Experiments. New Beginnings will be shown on March 21, and a week later "The Work of Pudovkin" will have its only showing.
